

PENIS GOES WHERE?

A Simple Sex Mechanic for Live Action Roleplaying Games

By Mike Young

Many LARPs over the years have used card games to simulate sex, but all of them have been somewhat... unfulfilling. For that reason, I present this simple to play yet difficult to master sex mechanic for two or more interested people.

YOU WILL NEED...

- ☺ A Deck of Cards
- ☺ A Sharpie or Permanent Marker
- ☺ A 10 Sided Die

PREPARING THE DECKS

1. Take the cards and sort them by suit. Remove the face cards from the deck. They are not used.
2. With the Sharpie, write on the front of the following cards the following text:

Card	Text	Card	Text
Ace of Spades	Penis	Ace of Clubs	Mightily Thrust
2 of Spades	Push	2 of Clubs	Thrust
3 of Spades	Shove	3 of Clubs	Nudge
4 of Spades	Caress	4 of Clubs	Stroke
5 of Spades	Tap	5 of Clubs	Jab
6 of Spades	Touch	6 of Clubs	Diddle
7 of Spades	Plunge	7 of Clubs	Wack
8 of Spades	Drive	8 of Clubs	Jam
9 of Spades	Poke	9 of Clubs	Push
10 of Spades	Contact	10 of Clubs	Slam
Ace of Hearts	Asshole	Ace of Diamonds	Mouth
2 of Hearts	Stomach	2 of Diamonds	Breasts
3 of Hearts	Belly Button	3 of Diamonds	Thighs
4 of Hearts	Left Foot	4 of Diamonds	Right Foot
5 of Hearts	Eye	5 of Diamonds	Nose
6 of Hearts	Fingers	6 of Diamonds	Ear
7 of Hearts	Hand	7 of Diamonds	Taint
8 of Hearts	Elbow	8 of Diamonds	Spine
9 of Hearts	Tongue	9 of Diamonds	Nipples
10 of Hearts	Vagina	10 of Diamonds	Clitoris

3. Shuffle the red cards together to form the female deck.
4. Place the Ace of Spades (The Penis Card) to the side. Shuffle the black cards together to form the male deck and then place The Penis Card on top.

PLAYING THE GAME (HETEROSEXUAL COUPLE)

1. The game is played in rounds. To start, the man places The Penis Card face up in front of him and shuffles the male deck. The woman shuffles the female deck.

2. Each player draws five cards from their deck.
3. Each player chooses a card from their hand of five and plays it face down in front of them.
4. On the count of three they turn over their cards. The man then recites what happens as a sentence. For example, if the man played the 9 of Spades and the woman played the 7 of Hearts, the man would say, "I poke your left hand with my penis." Or if the man played the 2 of Spades and the woman played the 5 of Diamonds, the man would say, "I push my penis into your nose."
5. The woman then repeats what the man said reversing the pronouns. "You poke my left hand with your penis." "You push your penis into my nose."
6. Then the man rolls the 10 sided die. If the roll is greater than the lower number played and less than the higher number played, the man has an orgasm. (As the female orgasm is a myth, no rules exist to allow for it.) This means that if both cards have the same number, the man cannot orgasm this round.
7. If there is no orgasm, the man and woman each draw a replacement card and play continues.

HOMOSEXUAL COUPLE

Homosexual sex is simulated using the same mechanic, with a couple of changes.

- ☺ Both participants get both the male and female decks. Just place them within reach of both players. When drawing a card, even at the beginning of the game, players may draw from either deck.
- ☺ Male players place a Penis Card in front of them. If a second Penis Card is not available, use the one and it is presumed to represent both penises at once. Further, any cards from the female deck that represent parts not of the male anatomy should be discarded when drawn and a replacement should be drawn.
- ☺ Female players do not use the Penis Card unless they have, like, a dildo or something, in which case the card should be referred to as the Penis Replacement Card.
- ☺ Each player plays two cards each round, a male and female card. With men, the men perform the action they play with their penis on the body part played by the other person. With women, the women perform the action they play with the body part they play on the body part played on the other person.
- ☺ Each man should roll the die to see if they orgasm, using their action and their opponent's body part. Once a man orgasms, he may not orgasm again that game. The winner is the man who orgasms last.
- ☺ Women may also roll the die using the same rules for men, although they may orgasm multiple times, as nobody can please a woman like another woman.

GROUP SEX

The group sex rules for Penis Goes Where? are similar to the couple sex rules with each participant drawing from the appropriate decks and making the appropriate die rolls.
